DERIVATION	Adequacy Standards Regulation - LE-047

It is the policy of the Toronto Police Services Board that:

1. The Chief of Police will work in partnership, where possible, with the local Crown, appropriate community members and agencies, including health care providers, government agencies, municipal officials, other criminal justice agencies, including law enforcement agencies, as well as victim services to ensure a coordinated and effective strategy to deal with high risk individuals;
2. The Chief of Police will ensure that the strategy addresses:
 - a) Bail opposition consistent with the Ministry's guideline on Bail and Violent Crime;
 - b) Dangerous offender and long term offender applications;
 - c) High Risk Offender National Flagging System and requirements of CPIC;
 - d) Information sharing;
 - e) Case management planning;
 - f) Judicial restraint orders;
 - g) Victim assistance; and
 - h) Disclosure of information, including community notification and safety planning.
3. The Chief of Police will ensure that the Service's skills development and learning plan addresses the training and sharing of information with officers, communication operators/dispatchers and supervisors on the police response to high-risk individuals.

For the purposes of this policy, the definition of a "High Risk" individual can be found in the Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services Adequacy Standards Guideline entitled Police Response to High Risk Individuals.
